

OER Creator Workshop – Week 1

Workshop 1, Tuesday, 18 October 2022, 9.45 a.m. – 4.30 p.m.

meet and collaborate – in person, on-campus in Zurich Lagerstrasse

Welcome to our OER Creator Workshop!

This workshop is part of our OER Creator Workshop series that runs from October till December 2022. We are passionate about Open Educational Resources (OER). For 8 weeks, we create and share learning resources under an open licence, so others can retain, reuse, revise, remix and redistribute them.

Workshop timeline

Focus of Workshop 1 | Week 1

Workshop 1 will be a hands-on workshop on Open Educational Resources (OER). Part 1 gives you insights into OER and its advantages compared to “closed” learning resources, what creators need to consider when creating and publishing an educational resource under an open licence. Part 2 of the workshop focuses on producing OER that is accessible.

Aims of this workshop

- to meet and collaborate with like-minded people
- to understand the concept of OER and open licences and how to apply them
- to understand accessibility aspects of open-licensed material
- to start developing your OER in groups or individually

Activities in this Workshop

- hands-on training on OER and accessibility
- developing OER that is open and accessible
- reflections and exchange within the group

About the project

Our OER Creator Workshop is part of the swissuniversities P-8 project umbrella, ‘Renforcement des digital skills dans l’enseignement’, which is directed towards strengthening digital skills in teaching. Our aim is to form an active community of educators around the concept of creating and sharing OER.
